02/03: Gender Lecture Series, Refusing Conformity

In case you missed it: a friendly reminder of next week's yearly Machteld de Metsenaere lecture!!

This is the second panel of the "RHEA Gender Lecture Series", on the topic of "Refusing to Conform: Trans Bodies as a Site of Resistance".

We aim to open up conversations about gender, and in this case, transness, among professors, researchers, and students. We specifically also want to explore different aspects of trans resistance, such as resisting political normativity, moving beyond binary frameworks, and challenging/rewriting Western narratives around transness.

The panel will take place on the 2nd of March, from 18:30 to 20:30 on the VUB Etterbeek campus, in auditorium D.0.02, followed by a reception. The panelists are Mo Moulton (Professor in History, University of Birmingham), Erynn Robert (coordinator at Prisme), Joke D'Heer (culture and media scientist) and Olave Nduwanje (activist and podcaster). The panel is moderated by Marion Wasserbauer (social scientist UAntwerpen).
